

Internet Safety

in the

Michigan Model for Health™

The Michigan Model for Health™ is a nationally recognized, comprehensive, evidence-based, Pre-K through 12 curriculum built around skills-based instruction. It contains lessons on Internet safety in the Safety Unit at the following elementary grades.

GRADE	LESSONS	OBJECTIVES or STRATEGIES
2	Safety 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognize the Internet as a source of stranger danger. Describe safety hazards when using the Internet. Develop strategies to stay safe when using the Internet. Teacher Reference: “Strategies for Safe Internet Use” Family Resource Sheet: “A Quick Guide to the Internet for Families”
3	Safety 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher References: “Strategies for Safe Internet Use,” and “Questions on Safety Tips” (cyber safety included) Family Resource Sheet: “A Quick Guide to the Internet for Families”
4	Safety 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Describe safety hazards when using the Internet. Develop strategies to stay safe when using the Internet. Teacher Reference: “Internet Safety Strategies Family Resource Sheets: “A Quick Guide to the Internet for Families,” and “Our Family’s Internet Safety Contract”
6	Safety 5 Safety 6 Safety 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Describe the safety hazards related to using the internet. Apply strategies to stay safe when using the internet. Describe safety hazards related to using the Internet. Apply strategies to stay safe when using the Internet. Demonstrate the ability to ask a trusted adult for help when feeling personally threatened or unsafe, including while using the Internet. Family Resource Sheet: “Staying Safe Online” Advocate for others to stay safe when using the internet.